Online Learning

www.advancedcareplanning.org.nz

Look for “Healthcare Workers” and follow the link to eLearning, you will need to register which is quick and easy.

Four modules which can be completed separately, each takes approximately 20 minutes. Very user friendly, some short videos.

There is also a “Resources” tab which has “Useful Links,” this has the Ministry of Health Guidelines for healthcare workers.

RNs can claim Professional Development hours.
